PROPERTY OVERVIEW

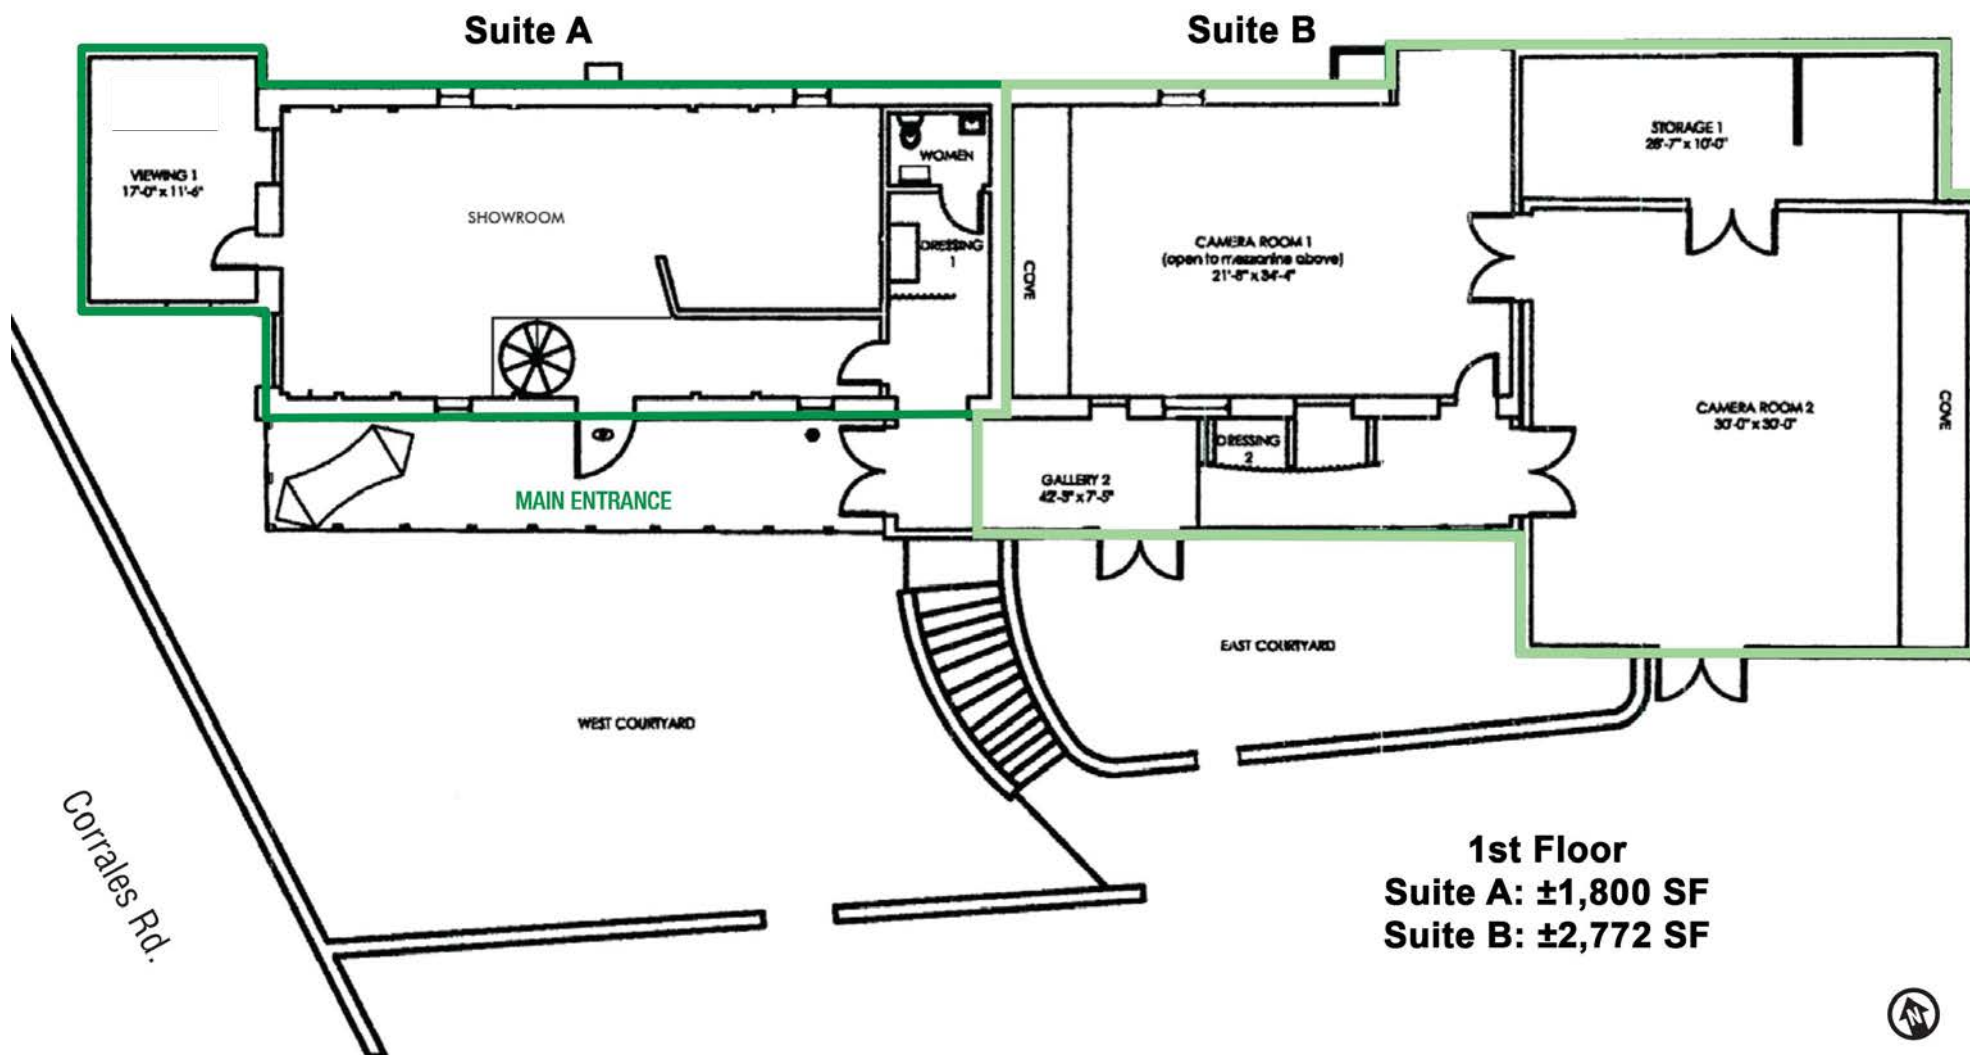

4604 Corrales Road offers a distinctive commercial ownership opportunity in the heart of Corrales, New Mexico. With direct frontage along the village's main commercial corridor, this adobe property combines authentic Southwest character with modern interiors following a full remodel in 2019. Separate entrances, multiple offices, and restrooms provide a flexible layout for office, boutique retail, studio, or service uses, subject to applicable approvals. An enclosed courtyard with native landscaping, balcony and patio areas, and convenient on-site parking enhance the customer and tenant experience. The property's adaptable configuration presents opportunities for investors or owner-users seeking a memorable business setting within Corrales' established commercial district.

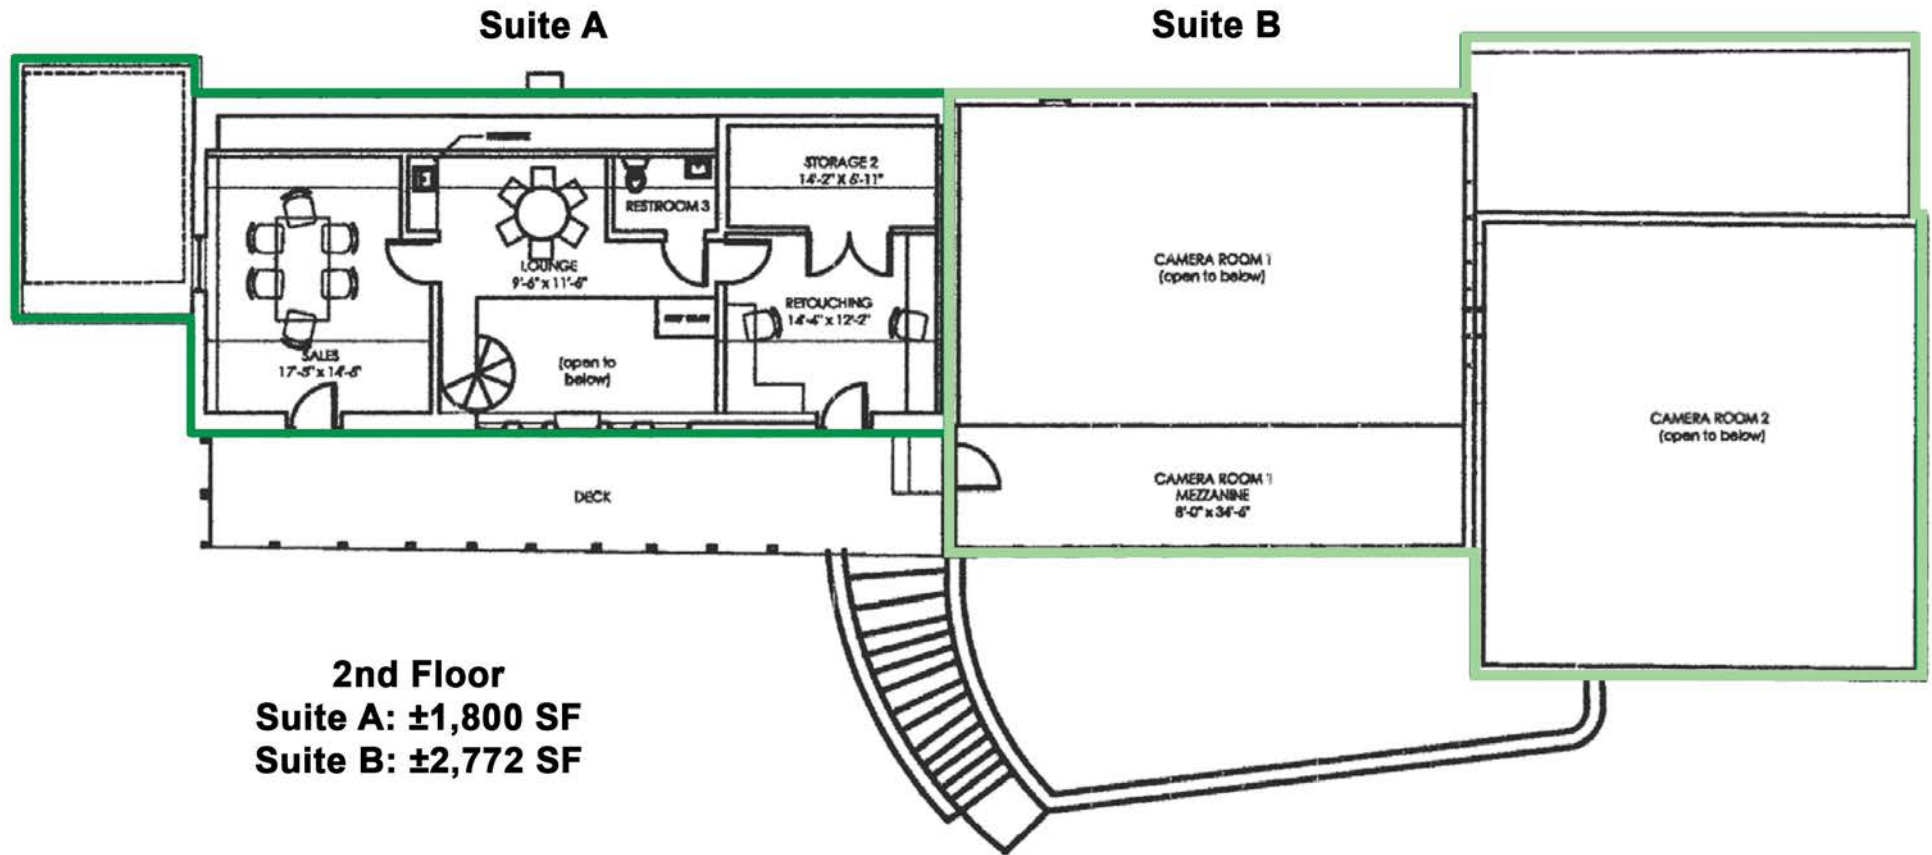

LOCATION OVERVIEW

Located along Corrales Road near Rincon Road, 4604 Corrales Road occupies a prominent position within the Village of Corrales' established commercial corridor. The setting blends the village's distinctive rural character with a mix of local shops, restaurants, galleries, and community amenities. Direct visibility from Corrales Road provides valuable exposure to residents and visitors, while the location offers access to the broader Albuquerque and Rio Rancho markets. This combination of village atmosphere and regional connectivity makes the property an appealing setting for businesses seeking a recognizable Corrales address.
